MICHIGAN NONPROFIT ASSOCIATION ANNOUNCES ELECTION OF SOUTHEAST MICHIGAN PUBLIC POLICY COUNCIL OFFICERS

DETROIT, Michigan – Michigan Nonprofit Association (MNA) today announced the election of new officers for the Southeast Michigan Public Policy Council, a group of nonprofit leaders who provide a unified voice for nonprofit organizations and the communities they serve in Southeast Michigan.

The new officers were elected to two year terms at the November 16, 2016 meeting of the Council. The newly elected officers include:

- Chair: Diane Renaud, St. Vincent and Sarah Fisher Center
- Vice-Chair: Kathy Aro, Accounting Aid Society
- Secretary: Kellie Boyd, First Children's Finance
- Membership Committee Chair: Elizabeth Fritz-Cottle, Alzheimer's Association Greater Michigan Chapter
- Communications Committee Chair: Patricia Verrill, Neighborhood Service Organization
- Advocacy and Research Committee Chair: Ghida Dagher, United Way for Southeastern Michigan

"Southeast Michigan is fortunate to have such a committed, passionate group of nonprofit leaders," said Donna Murray-Brown, MNA President & CEO. "I believe the sector's policy priorities in Southeast Michigan are in good hands."

"I am honored to have been chosen to serve as the new chair of the Southeast Michigan Public Policy Council," said Chair-elect Diane Renaud, Executive Director & CEO, St. Vincent and Sarah Fisher Center. "My fellow officers and I look forward to working on behalf of the nonprofit sector and all of the residents that we serve, ensuring that our community receives the best possible representation."
