

Michigan Nonprofit Association

Michigan | Campus Compact

Contact:

Joan Bowman
(517) 230-8110 (cell)
jbowman@mnaonline.org

For Immediate Release

October 22, 2014

MICHIGAN CAMPUS COMPACT ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR MELISSA STEWARD TO SPEAK AT HABITAT FOR HUMANITY CONFERENCE

Presentation to Focus on Mobilizing College Volunteers

LANSING, Michigan – Michigan Nonprofit Association (MNA), a state-wide association serving the nonprofit sector, today announced that Melissa Steward, Associate Director of Michigan Campus Compact, will speak at Habitat for Humanity's Affiliates In Motion conference on October 28, at 9:15 am, in Lansing, Michigan.

The Affiliates In Motion Conference is a three-day event for Habitat for Humanity Affiliates' volunteers and staff to gather together to network and plan new ways of achieving missions.

“College students are an important part of Michigan’s volunteer base,” said Melissa Steward, Associate Director of Michigan Campus Compact. “I’m looking forward to a rich discussion with the affiliates of Habitat for Humanity on engaging more students in volunteer work throughout the state.”

About MNA

Incorporated in 1990, MNA is a statewide membership organization dedicated to serving the diverse nonprofit sector through civic engagement, capacity-building, data and technology, training, and advocacy. MNA manages multiple programs and affiliates including Data Driven Detroit, Highway T, The LEAGUE Michigan, Michigan Campus Compact, Volunteer Centers of Michigan, and AmeriCorps and VISTA. For more information, visit www.mnaonline.org.

About MCC

Michigan Campus Compact is a coalition of college and university presidents committed to promoting the education and commitment of Michigan college students to be engaged citizens, through creating and expanding academic, co-curricular and campus-wide opportunities for community service, service-learning and civic engagement.

###