

Checklist for Supporting Social Movements as a 501(c)(3) Organization

- Identify inequalities and discrimination in the community your organization supports.
- Review your organization's operations to eliminate biases.
- Connect with grassroots leaders and offer support and resources they may need.
- Build awareness of activities like voting and filling out the census to impact future public policies.
- Identify actions of the organization and determine whether they are lobbying.